ZENITH Z-5RS SB CLASSIC UPC 818300020242

The Z-5RS SB Classic is our standard Z-5RS enhanced with a tropical wide forearm, a side-folding pistol brace and an optional covert carry case. The receiver end cap and Picatinny optics rail are included as accessories.

ZENITH Z-5RS SB RAIL UPC 818300020471

The Z-5RS SB Rail is our standard Z-5RS enhanced with an M-LOK handguard, a side-folding pistol brace and an optional covert carry case. The receiver end cap is included as an accessory.

ZENITH Z-5RS PISTOLMAN UPC 818300021317

The Z-5RS Pistolman is our standard Z-5RS enhanced with an M-LOK handguard, a lower-profile Picatinny optics rail and an AR-style fixed pistol brace. It ships in a 36-inch Plano All Weather Rifle Case with the receiver end cap included as an accessory.

The Pistolman configuration facilitates natural and comfortable shooting, and helps the user realize outstanding accuracy even at distances that push the limits of the 9mm cartridge.

Ultra low-profile MIL-STD 1913 Picatinny rail permits unobstructed use of iron sights

M-LOK handguard with movable rail section allows for multi-position light or laser attachment

Sturdy AR-style fixed brace withstands hard use and enables a proper cheek weld
